SIGHTSEEING*SHOPPING*ENTERTAINMENT*NATURE AND ACTIVE HOLIDAYS*FOOD AND DRINK*ART AND CULTURE

Ljubljana and Central Slovenia, with their wealth of cultural and historical sites, scenic countryside and stunning nature spots, offer an opportunity to enjoy an active holiday along with good food and a variety of vibrant events.

FOOD AND DRINK

Ljubljana Quality: The Best Restaurants

Learn about the best that Ljubljana has to offer in terms of gastronomy. Check out the restaurants that have been rated as the best by local experts and awarded a Ljubljana Quality Mark.

Taste Ljubljana

Go for the local flavours! Within the framework of the Taste Ljubljana project, selected restaurants offer the traditional dishes of Ljubljana, which are made from local ingredients and prepared by using modern cooking methods.

Taste Central Slovenia

Go for the local flavours! On your trip to the Central Slovenian region, you can enjoy Slovene cuisine in its authentic environment - in traditional village pubs and on homesteads.

Slovenian cuisine

Traditional Slovenian cuisine and its modern variants reflect the huge diversity of Slovenia's landscape found in a relatively small area.

Slovenian wines

Even though Central Slovenia is not a wine-growing region, Ljubljana has been awarded the international title of a "City of Vine and Wine", and that is no coincidence.

Ljubljana's bistros

The culinary diversity of Ljubljana can also be experienced at numerous small restaurants and bistros offering a wide and varied choice of food and good wines.

Fast food and street food

The culinary variety of a city is perhaps best reflected in the choice of fast food and street food on offer. Ljubljana, whose fast food is most obviously influenced by Balkan and Mediterranean cuisine, is no exception in this regard.

Diversity of sweet delights

In Central Slovenia you can taste an immensely varied choice of delicious sweet treats, from superb cakes and other confections available from the renowned cake shops to sweet delights typical of Ljubljana and Central Slovenia.

Open Kitchen

On Fridays from mid-March to October, the Ljubljana Central Market hosts a street food market that you simply should not miss. At the market, called Open Kitchen, you can experience the delights of freshly cooked food prepared by different Slovenian chefs right there in front of you, on the market stalls.

NATURE AND ACTIVE HOLIDAYS

Skating and winter sports

Slovenia is a country of great geographical diversity offering you, among other things, an opportunity for skiing down the slopes of the Alps. Most of the country's ski resorts are located quite close to Ljubljana. The most popular of them are described below.

Hiking and biking trails

Central Slovenia offers a wealth of opportunities for scenic trips. The entire region is criss-crossed with hiking and biking trails.

Recreational opportunities in Ljubljana

The inhabitants of Ljubljana love to be outside and lead a highly active lifestyle. This is not surprising as the city abounds in parks, playgrounds and paths, which are most appropriate for the recreation.

Golf in Ljubljana and Slovenia

Slovenia has been named as the Undiscovered Golf Destination of the Year 2015 by the International Association of Golf Tour Operators (IAGTO). The country boasts 13 golf courses, including two in the immediate vicinity of the capital.

The Path of Remembrance and Comradeship

The Path of Remembrance and Comradeship, which encircles Ljubljana, symbolizes dedication to a healthy lifestyle while at the same time serving as a reminder of the city's history.

Adrenaline sports and special experiences

Central Slovenia offers a wide and varied choice of outdoor adventures, from exploring the region's natural and cultural sights to intense, breathtaking experiences.

Fishing in Central Slovenia

Central Slovenia offers excellent opportunities for freshwater fishing in beautiful natural surroundings.

Gardens and parks

Ljubljana and the Central Slovenia are not known only for their natural particularities but also for their botanic gardens and parks.

Ljubljana Marshes

The Ljubljana Marshes is a natural area of wetlands and peat bogs, known for its rare animal and vegetal species and for the remains of the prehistoric pile dwellings, which are inscribed under the UNESCO World Heritage List.

Green tours and activities in Ljubljana

Ljubljana is a city in touch with nature committed to putting in place advanced measures for sustainable development. In this section, you can find information about guided tours and activities that best reflect its green soul.
